This indicates that valuations for the purpose of taxation have been almost tripled, as forecasted after the first report from Union where the value of taxable property was more than tripled.

The taxables in the seven townships, who do not include the corporations assessed by the state board of tax commissioners, are valued at a larger sum than all of the taxables in the county last year, when the assessed value, on which taxes were paid this year, amounted to $23,263.795.

In Union township this year, personal property was assessed at $622,310 as compared with $557,905, and real estate and improvements at $3,390,085 as compared with $1,113,265.

The total valuation in Posey this year is $4,364,100 as compared with $1,165,700 last year, divided as follows: $543,140 on personal property and $1,113,560 on real estate. This year real estate and improvements is assessed at $360,594 and personal property at $758,460.

The valuation in Center is $4,272,900 this year and $774,435 last year. Real estate and improvement this year were $3,066,155 and last year $1,132,395. Personal property in 1918 was $612,040 and this year is $806,135.

Washington township's valuations increased this year to $3,974,970 from $1,528,655. Real estate and improvements last year were $1,050,500 and this year are $3,278,565. Personal property increased from $469,155 to $695,505.

Richland's total valuations jumped from $1,274,770 to $3,564,400. Personal property advanced from $420,290 to $544,750, and real estate and improvements from $854,480 to $2,611,650.

Anderson township's taxables last year amounted to $1,829,765 as against $4,279,598. Real estate and improvements advanced from $1,152,480 to $3,359,938. Personal property last year was $677,285 and this year is $937,660.

MADDEN OUTLINES REPUBLICAN PLANS

Congressman Just Back from Europe
Sets Forth Policy to Keep
Nation Out of War.

AGAINST FOREIGN ALLIANCE

(By United Press.)

Washington, May 26.—Plans assembled by Republicans for keeping the United States out of war were outlined today by Representative Madden, Illinois, who recently visited Europe.

As a national policy Madden made the following points: Separation from entangling alliances; universal military training for youths; a reasonably small army; maintenance of a reserve among soldiers returned to civil life.

Speaking of the league of nations, Madden said:

"It is very likely to lead us into trouble through defense of political integrity and geographical boundaries of foreign nations.

"I am more convinced since visiting Europe that America should stand aloof from entangling alliances," he stated.

"We cannot mingle with a people and on equal terms that do not think as we do. They are suspicious. Nations which are now being created are already at war with one another."

FINAL COUNTER PROPOSALS

First Alteration in German Treaty
Provides League Shall Determine Saar Question

(By United Press.)

Washington, May 26.—President Wilson has reached an agreement with the allied statesmen at Paris, whereby the United States will return the German ships seized in American ports, it was learned today.

Reports from Paris indicated that Britain thought our losses in shipping during the war had been so great that we were entitled to this concession.

Paris, May 26.—The allies are expected to complete the Austrian treaty today and Germany was expected to finish the assembling of the final counter proposals. Presentation of the Austrian terms at St. Germain is expected to take place Wednesday or Thursday.

The time limit to complete the negotiations will not be more than a week.

While the Big Four has not agreed to any date for the signing of the treaty at Versailles, it is thought that it will take place between June 10 and 15.

The exchange of notes between Premier Clemenceau and Foreign Minister Baumbach continues.

The first alteration in the treaty made by the allies to Germany was in the Saar Valley. The allies made concessions providing the league of nations shall determine the method by which Germany may recover mines, providing the people of the region vote for annexation.

The Big Four agreed this morning to recognize the Omsk Russian government in the territory controlled by Admiral Kolchak's armies, it was learned from semi-official sources. It was added that recognition of all other Russian factions under similar conditions with the exception of Bolshevikism, is being considered.

LOST AVIATORS ON BRITISH SOIL

Harry Hawker and His Navigator,
Commander Grieve Land at
Thurso, Scotland, Today

TO BE GIVEN ROYAL WELCOME

As News Spreads of Their Safety,
Great Enthusiasm is Manifest-
ed Throughout England

(By United Press.)

London, May 26.—Harry Hawker and Commander Grieve set foot on British soil today nearly a week after they had been given up for lost in their attempt to fly from Newfoundland to Ireland in a Sopwith airplane. The aviators who are the greatest national heroes of the moment, landed at Thurso, Scotland, from the British destroyer Revenge. The Revenge took them from the Danish steamer Mary, which picked them up in mid-ocean early last Monday after they had been forced to descend to the water.

Hawker and Grieve are scheduled to start this afternoon from Thurso for London where they will be given a royal welcome tomorrow.

When the news of the rescue was first received the Sopwith airplane Company telegraphed Thurso for confirmation. Later it was confirmed by an airplane courier.

As the news spread there was great enthusiasm throughout Great Britain. There were remarkable scenes in the streets in Green Hall and in moving picture theatres where the announcement of the rescue was made. Crowds tossed hats in the air and throng gathered around the home of Hawker near London. The town was he-lagged as it had not been since the war.

According to dispatches received here from Thurso, that village is preparing to give Hawker and Grieve a big demonstration when they start for London.

Officials of the admiralty believed that the eloped feed pipe that forced Hawker to descend, within easy reach of the steamer Mary, which saved him was a blessing in disguise. Had he continued on his voyage, they pointed out, they would have run into a hurricane which probably would have dashed his machine into the sea far from aid. The storm would have been encountered by Hawker about two hours after he passed the spot where he came down.

The first direct word from Hawker received here was a message to the London Daily Mail which offered the $50,000 prize for the first trans-Atlantic flight. This message was sent from on board the Revenge in Senpa Flow, where the German fleet is interned, and said:

"My machine stopped owing to the water filter in the feed pipe from the radiator to the water pump being blocked with refuse, such a soldier shaking loose in the radiator."

"It was no fault of the Rolls-Royce motor, which ran absolutely perfect from start to finish, even when all the water had boiled away."

"We had no trouble in landing on the sea, where we were picked up by the tramp ship Mary, after being in the water for ninety minutes."

The point at which Hawker was forced to the water was about 1,000 miles from his starting point at Newfoundland and about 850 miles from the Irish coast.

PLAN BOND ISSUE FOR INFIRMARY

Commissioners Also Instruct Auditor to Advertise For Bidders For
New Home For Poor

MUST GET STATE BOARD'S O. K.

Rate of Interest and Term of Bonds
Not Determined—Nine Bridge
Contracts Awarded

With the term of the bonds and the interest undecided, the county board of commissioners has directed the county auditor to file a petition with the state board of tax commissioners for permission to issue Rush county bonds to the amount of $85,000 for the purpose of building a county infirmary on the site of the present building, which has been declared unsanitary and unfit for use, east of the city.

In addition to taking preliminary steps and advertising for bids on the infirmary, the county board Saturday afternoon also awarded nine contracts for new bridges and bridge repair work, and passed a resolution instructing the township trustees to continue to maintain the township roads as they have in the past, thus putting an end to the controversy which resulted from a conflict in the boards' road law, passed by the last session of the legislature.

The auditor was directed to advertise for bids on the new infirmary, which is expected to cost approximately $85,000, the county council having appropriated this sum for the purpose last month. The advertisement for bidders will appear once each week for six weeks, so that the contract will not be let before July, and not then unless the state tax commissioners have given their approval to the bond issue.

Under the law, the auditor also has to give notice of the filing of the petition with the state board, and was so instructed by the commissioners. The commissioners were undecided about the term of the bonds and the interest because they do not know how the bond market will be in July when they are offered for sale. The county board wants to be sure to have the interest rate high enough so that the bonds will sell, and not experience the delay that has caused the county's road program to be set back, due to the failure of the bonds to sell.

Local bond men were in consultation with the county board Saturday regarding the features of the issue. The commissioners were advised to make the interest rate at least 4 1/2 or possibly 4 3/4. They were told the interest could not be made too high, but that it could be made so low that the bonds would sell. If made too high, the county will lose nothing because the bonds would sell at a premium which would represent the difference between the interest rate of the bonds and the current rate.

The commissioners Saturday also directed the auditor to call the county council in special session July 8 to pass an ordinance authorizing the county infirmary bond issue.

There were five bidders on the nine contracts which were awarded. E. L. Kennedy of this city submitted six estimates and was awarded three contracts; Lawrence & Ennis of Arlington submitted two estimates and were granted a contract on each; the Burke Construction company of Newcastle submitted four estimates and received three contracts. John Dyer offered one bid—$293 on the Porter bridge repair—and got the contract.

A. R. Herkless of this city was the fifth bidder. His estimate on Continued on Page Five

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) and the Motorist

THE Standard Oil Company (Indiana), as a public servant, interprets its obligation to the 2,000,000 motorists in the territory it serves as reaching beyond simply supplying them with gasoline and lubricating oils.

The Company feels that it falls short of its full duty, if in the manufacture of gasoline and lubricating oils the elements of economy, efficiency, dependability, and protection are not inherent in every gallon.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) requires of its products, that, in addition to furnishing dependable power and lubrication the car investment of the motorist must be protected—his repair bills must be minimized—the life of the car must be prolonged.

Every frictional surface must be conserved. The engine must respond instantly in emergencies. The motorist must get every possible mile out of every gallon of Standard Oil gasoline which he buys.

To make these products as available to the 5-gallon buyer as to the 500- or 5000-gallon buyer, the Company maintains 1300 service stations conveniently located throughout the territory.

The Company realizes that its interests and those of the motorist are a unit—tangible and concrete.

Intelligent self-interest impels the Company to safeguard every product it manufactures and distributes that it may at all times give to the motorist the utmost of value and service.

RAT SQUIBS

Rats are like weeds. Eternal vigilance is necessary to keep them down.

An organized drive at New Burlington, Ohio, resulted in destroying 8,000 rats. The losing side served a banquet to the winners.

Rat drives are practicable, yield good results and provide plenty of fun.

To destroy all the rats on the premises of one farmer or one house in a town will not bring permanent results, since they are soon replaced. If, however, the farmers of an entire township or county unite in organized efforts to get rid of rats, much lasting good can be obtained. If continued from year to year, such organized efforts will be found very effective in every section of the Hoosier state.

THOUGHT BARN WAS ON FIRE

Men Saw Smoke From Auto Engine And Turned in Alarm

The fire department made a run to 810 North Morgan street late Saturday evening only to find a barn full of smoke, coming from an automobile engine. The machine belonged to George Green. He had driven it into his shed, and in order to remove the carbon, had put some oil into the engine and gone to the house while the engine was running. As a result of the oil burning, the barn was filled with smoke pouring from under the eaves in great volume, turned in the alarm before investigating.

Swat the Rat.

"Swat the rat" is the slogan adopted by Indiana for the observance of rat day, May 27. Every man, woman, and child in this county is urged to heed this slogan and see that all rats and mice the largest single destroyers of food and property, are exterminated.

The brown or Norway rat is probably the worst of all mammal pests in the county and the entire state. It is estimated that rats destroy food and property in Indiana worth not less than $4,000,000 annually. The cost in 1917 of maintaining the five insane hospitals, three state prisons and rest of the 19 institutions was $3,186,070. If the rats and mice were wiped out, enough will be saved to pay the taxes supporting these institutions and leave a balance of $800,000.

The depredations cost citizens of the United States a total of $200,000,000 each year in damage to crops and property alone—not to mention the dozens of diseases for which they are to blame. This property destruction is equivalent to the gross earnings of any army of over 200,000 men.

"On many a farm, if the grain eaten and wasted by rats and mice could be sold, the proceeds would more than pay all the farmers' taxes," declared an authority of the department of Agriculture recently.

The common brown rat breeds six to ten times a year and produces an average of 10 young at a litter. Young females breed when only 3 to 4 months old. At this rate, a pair of rats breeding uninterruptedly and without deaths, would at the end of three years 18 generations, be increased to 359,709,482 individuals.

"For centuries the world has been fighting rats without organization and at the same time has been feeding them and building fortresses for them. If we are to fight them on equal terms, we must deny them food and hiding places," said County Agent Detrick, leader of the drive against the rats in this county. "We must organize and unite to rid every community in the county of these pests. The time to begin is right now."

The Abstract and the Concrete

A fairly harmless form of diversion consists of arguing the question "Who won the war?" Perhaps even we in Rush county can hardly claim immunity from the epidemic. On our streets and in our corner stores we are liable to see exhibitions of this popular form of relaxation.

When Swedes and Scotchmen get together—Poles and Italians—the question is likely to be debated with lively vehemence. In northern France at the close of 1918 certain acromies were inflamed almost to the point of open hostility between Americans and Englishmen—Welshmen and Australians—Canadians and Frenchmen. The partisans show a strange similarity in one particular. Without exception they always claimed that they alone were the fair haired boys. Among the sober-minded of all nationalities the absurdity of this bickering was recognized; but there was plenty of it.

But no Japanese ever claims that his country won the war. He never points to his country's army, or navy, or munition shops as factors indispensable to allied victory.

The Japanese don't even think that they won the war. They know for a fact that they didn't. And this fact apparently worries them as rain worries ducks.

If there is anything in the world that ranks at zero in importance to the Japanese it is the question of credit for winning the war. We can have it all, if we want it. They don't.

"What do we get out of it?" is all they ask. They don't want the glory they want the gravy—at least, they did until they got it.

Americans here and elsewhere should not blind ourselves to the facts. Nations of the world are no more interested in the wealth of humanity than they were five years ago. They are interested in their own prosperity—and perhaps, aggrandizement.

America's altruistic attitude is a noble one. But all the same, seeing that the world is what it is, let us not junk our navy and disband our army in anticipation of a Utopian epoch which none of this generation will ever live to see.

ALL WRONG

This Mistake is Made by Many
Rushville Citizens

Look for the cause of backache. To be cured you must know the cause.

If it's weak kidneys you must set the kidneys working right.

A Rushville resident tells you how.

Frank McFarland, 830 W. Tenth St., says: "My kidneys began to get weak and in a short time I was so bad off I could hardly get about. My back was in terrible shape. It ached so, especially at night that I could hardly sleep. Mornings my back was so stiff that when I bent over, I could hardly straighten again. The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage and highly colored. Another of the family had used Doan's Kidney Pills with such good results, I thought I would try them, so I got a box at Johnson's Drug Store. They helped me right away and I kept on using them until I was cured."

CONWELL SMITH WINS IN POLE VAULT EVENT

Takes First in State Track Meet at Earlham But John K. Tompkins Fails to Place.

CRAWFORDSVILLE IS WINNER.

Conwell Smith of the local high school won the pole vault at the state track meet at Richmond Saturday, vaulting 11 feet and 1 inch. He made an effort to beat the state record of 11 feet, 7 3/4 inches but failed in the attempt. Crawfordsville won the meet with the score of 16 points and Noblesville placed second with 9 and one-third points.

John K. Tompkins of the local school failed to place in the events he took part in but was able to take second place in the preliminary run in the low hurdles. Knee of Wabash was the individual high point man with a total of eight points, winning first in the 100 yard dash and second in the 220 yard dash and second in the 220 yard perhaps to the wet condition of the track and field. Medals and cups were given to the winners of the various events at 6:30 Saturday evening in front of the Earlham hall and the visitors were entertained at a social given at the Laidley hall.

Snap Beans

Snap beans, sometimes called bush beans, bunch beans, or string beans, are one of the most important crops for the small garden, and will produce a large amount of food on a given area. The first planting may be made quite early, provided the beans do not come through the ground in time to be injured. It is a good plan to follow the first planting in a few days by a second planting to safeguard against loss of the first planting by a late frost. Successive plantings should be made at intervals throughout the season in order to give a continuous supply. In sections where the heat of mid-summer is such that beans will not thrive, two or three plantings may be made in the springtime, then no further plantings until August or early September, at which time one or two plantings may be made for fall use.

Beans do best on warm, well-drained, sandy loam soil, but they will grow on almost any good garden land. While beans require enough richness in the soil to make them grow rapidly, they should not be fed too heavily on nitrogenous matter because of the tendency to increase the tops at the expense of the pods.

One pint of snap beans will plant a little more than 100 feet of row. The seeds may be placed in hills, five to a hill, and the hills spaced one foot apart, or they may be drilled, with one bean every three inches in the row. The depth seeds should be covered depends on the character of the soil. If it is light sandy loam, the seed should be covered about one inch and the ground slightly firmed. If the soil is inclined to be heavy, the seed should not be covered so deeply, and care should be taken that the soil is not packed over the beans.

In case of a beating rain after planting and before the beans are up, the surface of the soil over the rows should be loosened by means of a steel rake, care being taken that the beans are not injured in the process. Beans should never be cultivated or hoed when the foliage is wet with rain or dew. Forty to sixty days after planting will be required for snap beans to mature, and each planting will continue to supply pods for about two or three weeks if weather conditions are favorable—United States Department of Agriculture.

HOME BREWERS ARE UNDER THE BAN

No Longer Possible to Make Brews in Family Teakettle Because of Federal Ruling

PENALTY TO PROVIDE RECIPE

Persons Who Attempt Brewing at Home Lay Themselves Liable To Fine and Imprisonment

Home brewers will have to be wary if they avoid detection because federal revenue agents have been warned to be on the alert for persons who make their own brews in the family teakettle.

Peter J. Krayer, collector of internal revenue, has received a ruling by the treasury department that that persons who attempt the brewing of beer at home may lay themselves liable to fines ranging from $500 and $5,000, and prison sentences of from six months to two years. Not only this, but also that persons knowingly supplying materials or receipts for such purposes also may be liable as accessories before the fact.

The ruling is based on Section 3282 of the revised statutes of the United States, which provides that a mash or wash suitable for distillation may be made legally only on the premises of a licensed distillery. The ruling explains that it is impossible to produce home-brewed beer or similar beverages without making such a mash and recites the penalties.

It is said that many preparations and materials for home brewing together with receipts and directions for their use, have been on sale here. Under the ruling the sale of such materials and receipts may subject the seller to the penalties of the statute.

Janesville Two-Row Cultivator

WHEN you sit comfortably on the easy riding Janesville Two-Row, and see every plant in every row getting exactly the cultivation you want it to have, you think what a blessing it is that you have a machine to do all that work. The old timers would think so if they could see you getting over the field so rapidly, and doing the work better, than they ever did.

The Janesville Floating Arches solve the problem. They are hung by pendulums from the top bar and swing from side to side with a pendulum movement. You widen or narrow the gangs in the row with your feet. Or lock them at any width desired.

The shovels naturally follow the rows, but you can shift them to either side so quickly and so easily that you can hoe every hill without stopping the team.

Your own weight on the seat bars acts as a lever to turn the wheels slightly up hill—this big advantage takes the down-hill creep out of side-hill plowing. The entire machine is light, compact, flexible—no oiling needed except in wheel boxes.

Cultivate with a Janesville Two-Row—and you will forget that there ever was hard work in cultivation.

To settle the controversy over the Beardsley law, which took from the trustees the control of the township roads and placed it in the hands of the commissioners, without making any arrangements for maintaining them, the commissioners passed the following resolution:

Whereas, the general assembly of the state of Indiana, in its Seventy-first regular session begun on the 9th day of January, 1919, passed an act known as the "Beardsley Law," being chapter 107 of said acts, which act confers certain powers and duties on the township trustees of the state of Indiana, with reference to the improvement and repair of the township highways and bridges, which act was approved on March 13, 1919, and

Whereas, the General Assembly at the same session passed an act concerning highways which is chapter 112 and 531 of the acts of the General Assembly of 1919, which act was approved on the same day as said "Beardsley law," by the terms of which all control of highways, bridges and culverts are taken from the township officers, and are placed under the supervision, management and control of the Board of Commissioners of the several counties, and,

Whereas, said acts seem to conflict with each other, and,

Whereas, the attorney general of the state has given and rendered an opinion concerning said conflicting laws, suggesting that said township trustees should retain control of the township highways, bridges and culverts, and the State examiner of state board of Accounts to continue to improve said township roads, bridges and culverts as they have previously done, except that they shall do so under the direction of the Board of County Commissioners of the respective counties.

Now, therefore, in order that the Township trustees of Rush County, Indiana, may have full power and authority to contract for road materials, repair and improve the roads, bridges and culverts in their respective townships, We the Board of Commissioners of Rush County, Indiana, hereby appoint the township trustees of the several townships in said county as superintendent of the township roads, bridges and culverts in his respective township and direct said trustee to contract for road materials, and to proceed to repair and improve said township roads, bridges and culverts, and to pay for same out of the money in the road fund in his township or such money as may be received from levies for that purpose, giving said trustee full authority to act for and in behalf of this board of Commissioners in his township in regard to said township road, bridge and culverts.

MR. & MRS. RUG BUYER

Of Rushville and Rush County

If you were going to buy a diamond would you want the advice of experts, backed by their reputation and your judgment? Does not the same thing hold good on Rugs and Carpets?

One family in Rushville purchased a Whittall Rug from us four years ago and since that time have returned and purchased three more of the same quality. Another family in Rush County purchased their carpets from us last year and on their recommendation their two nearest neighbors have come to us and purchased rugs and carpets this season. A traveling salesman (who sells a medium priced line of rugs and carpets) purchased an Anglo Persian Rug here and paid the same price you would be asked to pay us. This man is a rug expert and backed his own judgment when he made this purchase.

THESE PEOPLE ALL KNOW WHITTALL RUGS

Should this not be evidence enough that if our rugs and carpets are good enough for people who have thoroughly tried them and re-purchased, should they not be good enough for anyone.

Following is an exact copy of a portion of an advertisement that appeared in a daily paper published in a city not a great distance from here, May 7, 1919:

"Peerless Brussels Rugs, 9x12 size. The designs are oriental and Chinese effects in charming color combinations—value that is exceptional from the standpoint of beauty and service. These rugs priced each $62.50."

Our Price on This Same Rug in the Same Size is $54.00.

ARLINGTON WINS ANOTHER

Defeats Indianapolis Olivers Sunday by Score of 5 to 4.

The Arlington Red Sox defeated the Olivers, an Indianapolis team Sunday, in an exciting eight inning game, the final count being 5 to 4. Long's two-bagger drove in the tying and winning runs. Alexander, Arlington's center-fielder, stopped an Oliver rally when he raced into deep center to pull down a long fly. Tompkins mounted the rubber for the Red Sox in the sixth inning and held the Olivers at bay. The Riley All-Stars play at Arlington next Sunday.

SALVATION ARMY OPENS BATTERIES

Will Continue Cannonade on Rushville For About Ten Days— Meetings Well Attended.

CAPT. TENCH SPEAKS SUNDAY

At 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning the Rushville batteries of the Salvation Army opened up fire on the enemy and will not cease for about ten days. The speaker, Capt. J. A. Tench, gave a short talk on "Holiness" in the morning and in the afternoon a free and easy meeting was held, which a number enjoyed.

Sunday night the hall was crowded almost to its capacity. The large crowd listened to a stirring message on "Leprosy and Sin." A few of the large shots the speaker fired at the enemy were: "If you folks don't want to go to hell, why do I find you tonight riding on the hell-bound express. If God did give some of you people power, you would put it all in the whistle, the cylinders would run dry, hence no power but lots of noise." Meeting will be held every night this week.

MORE RED BLOOD AND STEADIER NERVES FOR RUN DOWN PEOPLE

The World Demands, Strong, Vigorous, Keen-Minded, Men and Women

It has been said of Americans that they work their habits overtime.

Many become nervous and inefficient by overwork.

By worry, despondency, social affairs, robbing brain and body of needed rest; excessive use of tobacco, indulgence in strong alcoholic drink—excesses of every kind that burn up the vital powers so necessary in these trying times to make both men and women fit to be of help to themselves and others.

It is time to be temperate in all things. The man or woman with impaired nerves caused by impoverished blood lacks vigor, the ambition, the endurance and the keen mind of those who avoid excesses.

Timidity, despondency, fear, trembling hands, want of confidence and even cowardness, are due in a large measure to abused nerves. People with plenty of red blood, corpuscles and strong, healthy nerves have no desire to shirk work and lean on others for guidance and support.

There is hardly a nerve-shattered man or woman (unless of an organic disease) in America today who cannot become alert and clear in mind; vigorous and energetic in body in a very few weeks and at trifling cost.

To become strong and ambitious, to feel that work is not drudgery; to have steady nerves, abundance of red blood and power of endurance; to be not only a man but as men now go, a superman, you must take seven tablets of Bio-feren every day for seven days—and take them faithfully.

Take two after each meal and one at bedtime and after seven days take one only after meal until the supply is exhausted. Then if you feel that any claim made in this special notice is untrue—if your nerves are not twice as steady as before; if you do not feel ambitious, more vigorous and keen-minded; the pharmacist who dispensed the tablets to you will gladly hand you back just what you paid for them.

Bio-feren is without doubt the grandest remedy for nervous, rundown, weak, anemic men and women ever offered direct through druggists and is not at all expensive. All druggists in this city and vicinity have a supply on hand—sell many packages.

VISITING RELATIVES IN COUNTY THIS WEEK

Capt. J. L. Norris, Formerly of This County, Here With Wife, Overseas Many Months

WAS IN LONDON AIR RAIDS

Captain and Mrs. J. L. Norris are visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Gray of Union township for a few days. Capt. Norris was recently discharged from the military service at Camp Taylor, Kentucky, after arriving in the States a short time ago from several months overseas service. Capt. Norris was formerly a resident of this county. When he entered the service, Capt. Norris made his home in Wesby, Montana, and had the honors of being the first one to enlist from that city after war was declared.

For several months he was attached to the surgical staff of Base hospital No. 20, London, England and witnessed many of the German air raids which terrorized London. He later saw service with the 137th Infantry of the 35th Division, and after the armistice was signed was stationed at Coblenz, Germany, with the Army of Occupation.

SEE INDIANAPOLIS AS A MODEL DRY CITY

American Dries Brought Foreign Co-Workers Here to Compare It With Wet Cities

BRYAN DELIVERS ADDRESS

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., May 26.—American dries brought foreign co-workers to Indianapolis today to show them a model dry city and to compare it with the wet cities of the United States and other nations.

William Jennings Bryan and Dr. Howard H. Russell, of Westerville, O., founder of the Anti-Saloon League of America, stopped here on a tour of the country in the interests of the world-wide prohibition. Bryan talked at Tomlinson hall this afternoon and will deliver another address there tonight.

These men were accompanied by a number of delegates representing prohibition elements in foreign lands who are in the United States to attend the convention of the Anti-Saloon League and the world prohibition conference in Washington next month. They are also touring the country to learn the difference between the wet and dry territories.

The party includes Dr. C. W. Saleeby, of London, a member of the Strength of Britain movement; W. J. Allison of Glasgow, secretary of the Scottish Prohibition Bill and Temperance association; and James Maron, secretary of the Australian Alliance Prohibition Council.

More than two hundred delegates are in the United States representing fifty countries. The party in Indianapolis was designated by the main body to make the tour.

Amusements

"Alias, Mike Moran" Tonight

No matter how weak a man's character may be or how mean he is, one can feel reasonably assured that some day, sooner or later, the strong and good traits will overwhelm the evil traits that are within him. This is a strong point clearly conveyed in "Alias, Mike Moran," with Larry Young in the starring role, which is being shown at the Princess theatre tonight. The story was written by Orin Bartlett and published in the Saturday Evening Post under the title of "Open Sesame."

Tomorrow Ethel Clayton's new starring picture, "Portuguese Girl," is the offering.

"Two Hacks in Hawaii" — Lew Green and his musical girl are showing "Two Hacks in Hawaii" at the Mystic theatre tonight. Tuesday "The Bogus Modest" and Wednesday "The Mormon Wife" will be shown. Each night there is also a reel of moving pictures shown in connection with the comedy by the Lew Green company.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

The Ford One-Ton Truck may well be classed as an agricultural necessity, it fits into and fills so many wants on the farm. It is a reliable bearer of farm burdens, not only doing the work of several horses quicker and better than the horse, and does not "eat its head off" when not working. The aggressive farmer has only to consider the possibilities of the Ford truck and he is ready to buy one. We judge this to be so from the way farmers are buying them. Truck Chassis $550 f. o. b. Council Takes Steps to Have C. I. & W. Flagmen on Duty Until Fast Trains Pass

ORDER IN EFFECT SUNDAY

As the result of steps taken by the city council, the watchmen on the C. I. & W. railroad were at their posts yesterday from seven a. m. until 6:45 p. m. They were formerly relieved at six o'clock but after a change of the time on the railroad, two fast trains were due through here after six o'clock.

It was pointed out by citizens a short time ago that the working hours of the watchmen of the railroad should be changed, as these two trains after six were considered the most dangerous of any during the day, because at this time of the evening business men were going to their home in their machines. Also the various other traffic is heavier at this time of the day than at any other, a short time ago the railroad asked the council to pass an ordinance to regulate the hours of the flagmen so they would not be compelled to work longer than necessary.

VALUATIONS NEARLY TRIPLED

Value of Taxable Property in The Seven Increased From $10-
802,275 to $26,802,793

Official reports on this year's assessment in seven of the twelve townships, unofficially compiled, shows taxable property amounting to $26,802,793 as compared with assessments last year in the same townships amounting to $10,802,275.

This indicates that valuations for the purpose of taxation have been almost tripled, as forecasted after the first report from Union where the value of taxable property was more than tripled.

The taxables in the seven townships, who do not include the corporations assessed by the state board of tax commissioners, are valued at a larger sum than all of the taxables in the county last year, when the assessed value, on which taxes were paid this year, amounted to $23,263,795.

In Union township this year, personal property was assessed at $622,310 as compared with $557,965, and real estate and improvements at $3,390,085 as compared with $1,113,265.

Total property valuations in Jackson township this year amounted to $2,725,640 and last year $1,076,720. Real estate and improvements were assessed this year at $747,215. Personal property this year is valued at $491,920 and last year was $329,505.

The total valuation in Posey this year is $4,364,100 as compared with $1,165,700 last year, divided as follows: $543,140 on personal property and $1,113,560 on real estate. This year real estate and improvements is assessed at $3,603,440 and personal property at $758,460.

The valuation in Center is $4,272,500 this year and $1,744,435 last year. Real estate and improvements this year were $3,466,455 and last year $1,132,395. Personal property in 1918 was $612,040 and this year is $806,135.

MADDEN OUTLINES REPUBLICAN PLANS

Congressman Just Back from Europe
Sets Forth Policy to Keep
Nation Out of War.

AGAINST FOREIGN ALLIANCE

(By United Press.)

Washington, May 26.—Plans assembled by Republicans for keeping the United States out of war were outlined today by Representative Madden, Illinois, who recently visited Europe.

As a national policy Madden made the following points: Separation from entangling alliances; universal military training for youths; a reasonably small army; maintenance of a reserve among soldiers returned to civil life.

Speaking of the league of nations, Madden said:

"It is very likely to lead us into trouble through defense of political integrity and geographical boundaries of foreign nations."

"I am more convinced since visiting Europe that America should stand aloof from entangling alliances," he stated.

"We cannot mingle with a people and on equal terms that do not think as we do. They are suspicious. Nations which are now being created are already at war with one another."

FINAL COUNTER PROPOSALS

First Alteration in German Treaty
Provides League Shall Deter-
mine Saar Question

(By United Press.)

Washington, May 26.—President Wilson has reached an agreement with the allied statesmen at Paris, whereby the United States will retain the German ships seized in American ports, it was learned today.

Reports from Paris indicated that Britain thought our losses to shipping during the war had been so great that we were entitled to this concession.

Paris, May 26.—The allies are expected to complete the Austrian treaty today and Germany was expected to finish the assembling of the final counter proposals. Presentation of the Austrian terms at St. Germain is expected to take place Wednesday or Thursday.

The time limit to complete the communications will not be more than a week.

While the Big Four has not agreed to any date for the signing of the treaty at Versailles, it is thought that it will take place between June 10 and 15.

The exchange of notes between Premier Clemenceau and Foreign Minister Prockdorff continues.

The first alteration in the treaty made by the allies to Germany was in the Saar Valley. The allies made concessions providing the league of nations shall determine the method by which Germany may recover mines, providing the people of the region vote for annexation.

The Big Four agreed this morning to recognize the Omsk Russian government in the territory controlled by Admiral Kolchak's armies, it was learned from semi-official sources. It was added that recognition of all other Russian factions under similar conditions with the exception of Bolshevism, is being considered.

LOST AVIATORS ON BRITISH SOIL

Harry Hawker and His Navigator,
Commander Grieve Land at
Thurso, Scotland, Today

TO BE GIVEN ROYAL WELCOME

As News Spreads of Their Safety,
Great Enthusiasm is Manifest-
ed Throughout England

(By United Press.)

London, May 26.—Harry Hawker and Commander Grieve set foot on British soil today nearly a week after they had been given up for lost in their attempt to fly from Newfoundland to Ireland in a Sopwith airplane. The aviators who are the greatest national heroes of the moment, landed at Thurso, Scotland. From the British destroyer Revenge. The Revenge took them from the Danish steamer Mary, which picked them up in mid-ocean early last Monday after they had been forced to descend to the water.

Hawker and Grieve are scheduled to start this afternoon from Thurso for London where they will be given a royal welcome tomorrow.

When the news of the rescue was first received the Sopwith airplane Company telegraphed Thurso for confirmation. Later it was confirmed by an airplane courier.

As the news spread there was great enthusiasm throughout Great Britain. There were remarkable scenes in the streets in Covent Garden and in moving picture theatres where the announcement of the rescue was made. Crowds tossed hats in the air. A throng gathered around the home of Hawker near London. The town was he-lagged as it had not been since the war.

According to dispatches received here from Thurso that village is preparing to give Hawker and Grieve a big demonstration when they start for London.

Officials of the admiralty believed that the clogged feed pipe that forced Hawker to descend, within easy reach of the steamer Mary, which saved him, was a blessing in disguise. Had he continued on his voyage, they pointed out, they would have run into a hurricane which probably would have dashed his machine into the sea far from aid. This storm would have been encountered by Hawker about two hours after he passed the spot where he came down.

The first direct word from Hawker received here was a message to the London Daily Mail which offered the $50,000 prize for the first trans-Atlantic flight. This message was sent from on board the Revenge in Scapa Flow, where the German fleet is interned, and said: "My machine stopped owing to the water filter in the feed pipe from the radiator to the water pump being blocked with refuse, such as solder shaking loose in the radiator. It was no fault of the Rolls-Royce motor, which ran absolutely perfect from start to finish, even when all the water had boiled away. We had no trouble in landing on the sea, where we were picked up by the tramp ship Mary, after being in the water for ninety minutes."

The point at which Hawker was forced to the water was about 1,000 miles from his starting point at Newfoundland and about 850 miles from the Irish coast.

PLAN BOND ISSUE FOR INFIRMARY

Commissioners Also Instruct Auditor to Advertise For Bidders For
New Home For Poor

MUST GET STATE BOARD'S O. K.

Rate of Interest and Term of Bonds
Not Determined—Nipe Bridge
Contracts Awarded

With the term of the bonds and the interest undecided, the county board of commissioners has directed the county auditor to file a petition with the state board of tax commissioners for permission to issue Rush county bonds to the amount of $85,000 for the purpose of building a county infirmary on the site of the present building, which has been declared unsanitary and unfit for use, east of the city.

In addition to taking preliminary steps and advertising for bids on the infirmary, the county board Saturday afternoon also awarded nine contracts for new bridges and bridge repair work, and passed a resolution instructing the township trustees to continue to maintain the township roads as they have in the past, thus putting an end to the controversy which resulted from a conflict in the Beardsley road law, passed by the last session of the legislature.

The auditor was directed to advertise for bids on the new infirmary, which is expected to cost approximately $85,000, the county council having appropriated this sum for the purpose last month. The advertisement for bidders will appear once each week for six weeks, so that the contract will not be let before July, and not then unless the state tax commissioners have given their approval to the bond issue.

Under the law, the auditor also has to give notice of the filing of the petition with the state board, and was so instructed by the commissioners. The commissioners were undecided about the term of the bonds and the interest because they do not know how the bond market will be in July when they are offered for sale. The county board wants to be sure to have the interest rate high enough so that the bonds will sell, and not experience the delay that has caused the county's road program to be set back, due to the failure of the bonds to sell.

Local bond men were in consultation with the county board Saturday regarding the features of the issue. The commissioners were advised to make the interest rate at least 4 1/2 or possibly 4 3/4. They were told the interest could not be made too high, but that it could be made so low that the bonds would not sell. If made too high, the county will lose nothing because the bonds would sell at a premium which would represent the difference between the interest rate of the bonds and the current rate.

The commissioners Saturday also directed the auditor to call the county council in special session July 8 to pass an ordinance authorizing the county infirmary bond issue.

There were five bidders on the nine contracts which were awarded. E. L. Kennedy of this city submitted six estimates and was awarded three contracts: Lawrence & Ennis of Arlington submitted two estimates and were granted a contract on each: the Burke Construction company of Newcastle submitted four estimates and received three contracts. John Dyer offered one bid, $293, on the Porter bridge repair and got the contract.

A. R. Herdless of this city was the fifth bidder. His estimate on the infirmary building was $85,000. Continued on Page Five

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) and the Motorist

THE Standard Oil Company (Indiana), as a public servant, interprets its obligation to the 2,000,000 motorists in the territory it serves as reaching beyond simply supplying them with gasoline and lubricating oils.

The Company feels that it falls short of its full duty, if in the manufacture of gasoline and lubricating oils the elements of economy, efficiency, dependability, and protection are not inherent in every gallon.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) requires of its products, that, in addition to furnishing dependable power and lubrication the car investment of the motorist must be protected—his repair bills must be minimized—the life of the car must be prolonged.

Every frictional surface must be conserved. The engine must respond instantly in emergencies. The motorist must get every possible mile out of every gallon of Standard Oil gasoline which he buys.

To make these products as available to the 5-gallon buyer as to the 500- or 5000-gallon buyer, the Company maintains 1300 service stations conveniently located throughout the territory.

The Company realizes that its interests and those of the motorist are a unit—tangible and concrete.

Intelligent self-interest impels the Company to safeguard every product it manufactures and distributes that it may at all times give to the motorist the utmost of value and service.

RAT SQUIBS

Rats are like weeds. Eternal vigilance is necessary to keep them down.

An organized drive at New Burlington, Ohio, resulted in destroying 8,000 rats. The losing side served a banquet to the winners.

Rat drives are practicable, yield good results and provide plenty of fun.

To destroy all the rats on the premises of one farmer or one house in a town will not bring permanent results, since they are soon replaced. If however, the farmers of an entire township or county unite in organized efforts to get rid of rats, much lasting good can be obtained. If continued from year to year, such organized efforts will be found very effective in every section of the Hoosier state.

THOUGHT BARN WAS ON FIRE

Men Saw Smoke From Auto Engine And Turned in Alarm

The fire department made a run to 810 North Morgan street late Saturday evening only to find a barn full of smoke, coming from an automobile engine. The machine belonged to George Green. He had driven it into his shed, and in order to remove the carbon, had put some oil into the engine and gone to the house while the engine was running. As a result of the oil burning, the barn was filled with smoke pouring from under the eaves in great volume, turned in the alarm before investigating.

Swat the Rat.

"Swat the rat" is the slogan adopted by Indiana for the observance of rat day, May 27. Every man, woman, and child in this county is urged to heed this slogan and see that all rats and mice the largest single destroyers of food and property, are exterminated.

The brown or Norway rat is probably the worst of all mammal pests in the county and the entire state. It is estimated that rats destroy food and property in Indiana worth not less than $4,000,000 annually. The cost in 1817 of maintaining the five insane hospitals, three state prisons and rest of the 19 institutions was $3,186,076. If the rats and mice were wiped out, enough will be saved to pay the taxes supporting these institutions and leave a balance of $800,000.

The depredations cost citizens of the United States a total of $200,000,000 each year in damage to crops and property alone not to mention the dozens of diseases for which they are to blame. This property destruction is equivalent to the gross earnings of any army of over 200,000 men.

"On many a farm, if the grain eaten and wasted by rats and mice could be sold, the proceeds would more than pay all the farmers' taxes," declared an authority of the department of Agriculture recently.

The common brown rat breeds six to ten times a year and produces an average of 10 young at a litter. Young females breed when only 3

ALL WRONG

This Mistake is Made by Many
Rushville Citizens

Look for the cause of backache. To be cured you must know the cause.

If it's weak kidneys you must set the kidneys working right.

A Rushville resident tells you how.

Frank McFarland, S30 W. Tenth St., says: "My kidneys began to get weak and in a short time I was so bad off I could hardly get about. My back was in terrible shape. It ached so, especially at night that I could hardly sleep. Mornings my back was so stiff that when I bent over, I could hardly straighten again. The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage and highly colored. Another of the family had used Doan's Kidney Pills with such good results, I thought I would try them, so I got a box at Johnson's Drug Store. They helped me right away and I kept on using them until I was cured."

CONWELL SMITH WINS IN POLE VAULT EVENT

Takes First in State Track Meet at Earlham But John K. Tompkins Fails to Place.

CRAWFORDSVILLE IS WINNER.

Conwell Smith of the local high school won the pole vault at the state track meet at Richmond Saturday, vaulting 11 feet and 1 inch. He made an effort to beat the state record of 11 feet, 7 3/4 inches but failed in the attempt. Crawfordsville won the meet with the score of 16 points and Noblesville placed second with 9 and one-third points. John K. Tompkins of the local school failed to place in the events he took part in but was able to take second place in the preliminary run in the low hurdles. Knee of Wabash was the individual high point man with a total of eight points, winning first in the 100 yard dash and second in the 220 yard dash and second in the 220 yard perhaps to the wet condition of the track and field. Medals and cups were given to the winners of the various events at 6:30 Saturday evening in front of the Earlham hall and the visitors were entertained at a social given at the Lindley hall.

HOW TO GROW

Snap Beans

Snap beans, sometimes called bush beans, bunch beans, or string beans, are one of the most important crops for the small garden, and will produce a large amount of food on a given area. The first planting may be made quite early, provided the beans do not come through the ground in time to be injured. It is a good plan to follow the first planting in a few days by a second planting to safeguard against loss of the first planting by a late frost. Successive plantings should be made at intervals throughout the season in order to give a continuous supply. In sections where the heat of mid-summer is such that beans will not thrive, two or three plantings may be made in the springtime, then no further plantings until August or early September, at which time one or two plantings may be made for fall use.

Beans do best on warm, well-drained, sandy loam soil, but they will grow on almost any good garden land. While beans require enough richness in the soil to make them grow rapidly, they should not be fed too heavily on nitrogenous matter because of the tendency to increase the tops at the expense of the pods.

One pint of snap beans will plant a little more than 100 feet of row. The seeds may be planted in hills, five to a hill, and the hills spaced one foot apart, or they may be drilled, with one bean every three inches in the row. The depth seeds should be covered depends on the character of the soil. If it is light sandy loam, the seed should be covered about one inch and the ground slightly firmed. If the soil is inclined to be heavy, the seed should not be covered so deeply, and care should be taken that the soil is not packed over the beans.

In case of a beating rain after planting and before the beans are up, the surface of the soil over the rows should be loosened by means of a steel rake, care being taken that the beans are not injured in the process. Beans should never be cultivated or hoed when the foliage is wet with rain or dew. Forty to sixty days after planting will be required for snap beans to mature, and each planting will continue to supply pods for about two or three weeks if weather conditions are favorable—United States Department of Agriculture.

Janesville Two-Row Cultivator

WHEN you sit comfortably on the easy riding Janesville Two-Row, and see every plant in every row getting exactly the cultivation you want it to have, you think what a blessing it is that you have a machine to do all that work. The old timers would think so if they could see you getting over the field so rapidly, and doing the work better than they ever did.

The Janesville Floating Arches solve the problem. They are hung by pendulums from the top bar and swing from side to side with a pendulum movement. You widen or narrow the gangs in the row with your feet. Or lock them at any width desired.

The shovels naturally follow the rows, but you can shift them to either side so quickly and so easily that you can hoe every hill without stopping the team.

Your own weight on the seat bars acts as a lever to turn the wheels slightly up hill—this big advantage takes the down-hill creep out of side-hill plowing. The entire machine is light, compact, flexible—no oiling needed except in wheel boxes.

Cultivate with a Janesville Two-Row—and you will forget that there ever was hard work in cultivation.

HOME BREWERS ARE UNDER THE BAN

No Longer Possible to Make Brews in Family Teakettle Because of Federal Ruling

PENALTY TO PROVIDE RECIPE

Persons Who Attempt Brewing at Home Lay Themselves Liable To Fine and Imprisonment

Home brewers will have to be wary if they avoid detection because federal revenue agents have been warned to be on the alert for persons who make their own brews in the family teakettle.

Peter J. Kruger, collector of internal revenue, has received a ruling by the treasury department that persons who attempt the brewing of beer at home may lay themselves liable to fines ranging from $500 and $5,000, and prison sentences of from six months to two years. Not only this, but also that persons knowingly supplying materials or receipts for such purposes also may be liable as accessories before the fact.

The ruling is based on Section 3282 of the revised statutes of the United States, which provides that a mash or wash suitable for distillation may be made legally only on the premises of a licensed distillery. The ruling explains that it is impossible to produce home-brewed beer or similar beverages without making such a mash and recites the penalties.

It is said that many preparations and materials for home brewing together with receipts and directions for their use, have been on sale here. Under the ruling the sale of such materials and receipts may subject the seller to the penalties of the statute.

THE OLIVER ONE AND TWO ROW

You will not find any neck weight on the Oliver Cultivators. The close, direct hitch is one of the main features that makes the two-row the lightest draft on the market. The gangs are eagle claw and are short and do not extend back of the wheels. The shovels work directly under the frame, which eliminates the neck weight and makes it the lightest draft two-row on the market. For sale by

To settle the controversy over the Beardsley law, which took from the trustees the control of the township roads and placed it in the hands of the commissioners, without making any arrangements for maintaining them, the commissioners passed the following resolution:

Whereas, the general assembly of the state of Indiana, in its Seventy-first regular session begun on the 9th day of January, 1919, passed an act known as the "Beardsley Law," being chapter 107 of said acts, which act confers certain powers and duties on the township trustees of the state of Indiana, with reference to the improvement and repair of the township highways and bridges, which act was approved on March 13, 1919, and

Whereas, the General Assembly at the same session passed an act concerning highways which is chapter 112 and 531 of the acts of the General Assembly of 1919, which act was approved on the same day as said "Beardsley Law," by the terms of which all control of highways, bridges and culverts are taken from the township officers, and are placed under the supervision, management and control of the Board of Commissioners of the several counties, and

Whereas, said acts seem to conflict with each other, and

Whereas, the attorney general of the state has given and rendered an opinion concerning said conflicting laws, suggesting that said township trustees should retain control of the township highways, bridges and culverts, and the State examiner of state board of accounts so continues to improve said township roads, bridges and culverts as they have previously done, except that they shall do so under the direction of the Board of County Commissioners of the respective counties.

Now, therefore, in order that the Township trustees of Rush County, Indiana, may have full power and authority to contract for road materials, repair and improve the roads, bridges and culverts in their respective townships, We the Board of Commissioners of Rush County, Indiana, hereby appoint the township trustees of the several townships in said county as superintendent of the township roads, bridges and culverts in his respective township and direct said trustee to contract for road materials, and to proceed to repair and improve said township roads, bridges and culverts, and to pay for same out of the money in the road fund in his township or such money as may be received from levies for that purpose, giving said trustee full authority to act for and in behalf of this board of Commissioners in his township, in regard to said township road, bridge and culverts.

MR. & MRS. RUG BUYER

Of Rushville and Rush County

If you were going to buy a diamond would you want the advice of experts, backed by their reputation and your judgment? Does not the same thing hold good on Rugs and Carpets?

One family in Rushville purchased a Whittall Rug from us four years ago and since that time have returned and purchased three more of the same quality. Another family in Rush County purchased their carpets from us last year and on their recommendation their two nearest neighbors have come to us and purchased rugs and carpets this season. A traveling salesman (who sells a medium priced line of rugs and carpets) purchased an Anglo Persian Rug here and paid the same price you would be asked to pay us. This man is a rug expert and backed his own judgment when he made this purchase.

THESE PEOPLE ALL KNOW WHITTALL RUGS

Should this not be evidence enough that if our rugs and carpets are good enough for people who have thoroughly tried them and re-purchased, should they not be good enough for anyone.

Following is an exact copy of a portion of an advertisement that appeared in a daily paper published in a city not a great distance from here, May 7, 1919:

"Peerless Brussels Rugs, 9x12 size. The designs are oriental and Chinese effects in charming color combinations—value that is exceptional from the standpoint of beauty and service. These rugs priced each $62.50."

Our Price on This Same Rug in the Same Size is $54.00.

"Teprae Wilton Rugs are beautiful in design and color—rich in finish with lustrous sheen—rugs that are recommended for hard service—designs are Chinese, Persian and Japanese patterns. 9x12 size, priced at $83.50."

Our Price on This Same Rug in the Same Size is $71.00.

Will Continue Cannonade on Rushville For About Ten Days—Meetings Well Attended.

CAPT. TENCH SPEAKS SUNDAY
At 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning the Rushville batteries of the Salvation Army opened up fire on the enemy and will not cease for about ten days. The speaker, Capt. J. A. Tench, gave a short talk on "Holiness" in the morning and in the afternoon a free and easy meeting was held, which a number enjoyed. Sunday night the hall was crowded almost to its capacity. The large crowd listened to a stirring message on "Leprosy and Sin." A few of the large shots the speaker fired at the enemy were: "If you folks don't want to go to hell, why do I find you tonight riding on the hell-bound express. If God did give some of you people power, you would put it all in the whistle, the cylinders would run dry, hence no power but lots of noise." Meeting will be held every night this week.

Two songs were sung by a choir representing all Milroy churches, at the opening of the service and the Rev. Mr. McMichie of Springfield offered a prayer. The Rev. Mr. Robertson of the Methodist church gave the benediction. The commencement exercises will be given Wednesday night at the school auditorium when the senior class will give a Victory Pageant in the place of the usual address.

MORE RED BLOOD AND STEADIER NERVES FOR RUN DOWN PEOPLE
The World Demands, Strong, Vigorous, Keen-Minded, Men and Women
It has been said of Americans that they work their habits overtime. Many become nervous and inefficient by overwork. By worry, despondency, social affairs, robbing brain and body of needed rest; excessive use of tobacco, indulgence in strong alcoholic drink—excesses of every kind that burn up the vital powers so necessary in these trying times to make both men and women fit to be of help to themselves and others.
It is time to be temperate in all things. The man or woman with impaired nerves caused by impoverished blood lacks vigor, the ambition, the endurance and the keen mind of those who avoid excesses.
Timidity, despondency, fear, trembling hands, want of confidence and even cowardliness, are due in a large measure to abused nerves. People with plenty of red blood corpses and strong, healthy nerves have no desire to shirk work and lean on others for guidance and support. There is hardly a nerve-shattered man or woman (unless of an organic disease) in America today who cannot become alert and clear in mind; vigorous and energetic in body in a very few weeks and at trifling cost.
To become strong and ambitious, to feel that work is not drudgery; to have steady nerves, abundance of red blood and power of endurance; to be not only a man but as men now go, a superman, you must take seven tablets of Bio-Ferren every day for seven days—and take them faithfully.
Take two after each meal and one at bedtime and after seven days take one only after meal until the supply is exhausted.
Then if you feel that any claim made in this special notice is untrue—if your nerves are not taken as steady as before; if you do not feel ambitious, more vigorous; and kept-minded, the pharmacist who dispensed the tablets to you will gladly hand you back just what you paid for them.
Bio-Ferren is without doubt the grandest remedy for nervous, run-down, anemic men and women ever offered direct through druggists and is not at all expensive. All druggists in this city and vicinity have a supply on hand—sell many packages.

ILLEGAL TRAFFIC IN BOOZE STOPS TONIGHT
Ohio Will Become Legally Dry and "Runners" Will no Longer be Able to do Business
MAY BE SHIPPED FROM STATE
The illicit traffic in booze between Ohio and Indiana, much of which has been carried on through Rushville, will come to an end at midnight when Ohio becomes legally dry. No longer will booze runners be riding through this city with all sorts of disguises, such as the one seen here Saturday. A man seen by many persons was very evidently hauling a "cargo" of intoxicating liquor to Indianapolis although to all intents and purposes he was a fruit vender. He had bananas and crates of other fruit stacked in the seat and on the running board of his machine, but the rear part of his car, which was heavily curtained, very plainly contained something which the driver did not intend the public eye should view.
Liquor may still be shipped out of Ohio after Monday midnight, however, unless the law is remedied by the state legislature, which convenes this week, according to an interpretation of the statute by John H. Price, attorney general for Ohio, who says the present dry act does not prevent storing or shipment out of the state before July 1, when national prohibition takes effect. The legislature is expected to change the law so as to prevent shipment into adjoining states.

VISITING RELATIVES IN COUNTY THIS WEEK

WAS IN LONDON AIR RAIDS

Captain and Mrs. J. L. Norris are visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Gray of Union township for a few days. Capt. Norris was recently discharged from the military service at Camp Taylor, Kentucky, after arriving in the States a short time ago from several months overseas service. Capt. Norris was formerly a resident of this county. When he entered the service, Capt. Norris made his home in Wesby, Montana, and had the honors of being the first one to enlist from that city after war was declared. For several months he was attached to the surgical staff of Base hospital No. 20, London, England and witnessed many of the German air raids which terrorized London. He later saw service with the 137th Infantry of the 35th Division, and after the armistice was signed was stationed at Coblenz, Germany, with the Army of Occupation.

American Drys Brought Foreign Co-Workers Here to Compare It With Wet Cities

BRYAN DELIVERS ADDRESS

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., May 26.—American drys brought foreign co-workers to Indianapolis today to show them a model dry city and to compare it with the wet cities of the United States and other nations.

William Jennings Bryan and Dr. Howard H. Russell of Westerville, O., founder of the Anti-Saloon League of America, stopped here on a tour of the country in the interests of the world-wide prohibition. Bryan talked at Tomlinson hall this afternoon and will deliver another address there tonight.

These men were accompanied by a number of delegates representing prohibition elements in foreign lands who are in the United States to attend the convention of the Anti-Saloon League and the world prohibition conference in Washington next month. They are also touring the country to learn the difference between the wet and dry territories.

The party includes Dr. C. W. Saleeby, of London, a member of the Strength of Britain movement; W. J. Allison of Glasgow, secretary of the Scottish Prohibitive Bill and Temperance association; and James Marion, secretary of the Australian Alliance Prohibition Council.

More than two hundred delegates are in the United States representing fifty countries. The party in Indianapolis was designated by the main body to make the tour.

Amusements

"Alias, Mike Moran" Tonight

No matter how weak a man's character may be or how mean he is, one can feel reasonably assured that some day, sooner or later, the strong and good traits will overwhelm the evil traits that are within him. This is a strong point clearly conveyed in "Alias, Mike Moran," with Larry Young in the starring role, which is being shown at the Princess theatre tonight. Larry Young is a man who turns yellow when he is drafted and bribes another man to take his place. Mike Moran, who strikingly resembles Larry, assumes Young's name and fights in his stead, later dying a hero's death and glorifying Young's name. Young realizes what a sneak and a weakling he has been, and pulling himself together he joins the Canadian forces and is soon in the thick of the fight, and wounded. His sweetheart finds him in a hospital and he satisfies his conscience by confessing all to her.

The story was written by Orin Bartlett and published in the Saturday Evening Post under the title of "Open Sesame."

Tonorrow Ethel Clayton's new starring picture, "Pettigrew's Girl" is the offering.

"Two Hicks in Hawaii" Low Green and his musical girl are showing "Two Hicks in Hawaii" at the Mystic theatre tonight Tuesday "The Bogus Modiste" and Wednesday "The Mormon Wife" will be shown. Each night there is also a reel of moving pictures shown in connection with the comedy by the Low Green company.

Council Takes Steps to Have C. I. & W. Flagmen on Duty Until Fast Trains Pass

ORDER IN EFFECT SUNDAY

As the result of steps taken by the city council the watchmen on the C. I. & W. railroad were at their posts yesterday from seven a. m. until 6:15 p. m. They were formerly relieved at six o'clock but after a change of the time on the railroad, two fast trains were due through here after six o'clock.

It was pointed out by citizens a short time ago that the working hours of the watchmen of the railroad should be changed as these two trains after six were considered the most dangerous of any during the day, because at this time of the evening business men were going to their home in their machines. Also the various other traffic is heavier at this time of the day than at any other, a short time ago the railroad asked the council to pass an ordinance to regulate the hours of the flagmen so they would not be compelled to work longer than necessary.

Foley Kidney Pills

Give tonight relief to those who suffer from kidney trouble. Men and women who were afflicted with backache, rheumatic pains, stiff joints, weak muscles, dizziness, redness of eyes, burning urines, nervousness, bladder weakness, loss of appetite or other symptoms of kidney trouble.

Mrs. Sam C. Small, Clayton, N. M., writes: "In January I was taken bad with my kidneys and bladder. I had been in bed two months, but kept getting worse. Then I got to bed something had to be done. We noticed an advertisement in the Clayton News for Foley Kidney Pills and we got for some. They have done me more good than any other medicine I have taken."

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

The Ford One-Ford Truck may well be classed as an agricultural necessity, it fits into and fills so many wants on the farm. It is a reliable bearer of farm burdens, not only doing the work of several horses quicker and better than the horse, and does not "eat its head off" when not working. The aggressive farmer has only to consider the possibilities of the Ford truck and he is ready to buy one. We judge this to be so from the way farmers are buying them. Truck Chassis $550 f. o. b.
